Sailing is a fun and active sport where you will meet like-minded people from all walks of life. Whether you're a diehard racer or just like mucking about with boats, Whitefriars Sailing Club could be just the place for you!

Why Whitefriars?

Whitefriars is run for its members by its members. We are a family orientated club that demands little more than your enthusiasm for activities that run throughout the year. There is regular sailing on Sundays, plus extra days in the summer: numerous training sessions at weekends and we welcome all ages and abilities. Call in and see us one Sunday.

Membership

There are different types of membership available ranging from Family to Social. Application forms are available from the Membership Secretary membership@whitefriarssc.org or on the website.

“ It's so beautiful at the lake. I feel quite privileged. ”

“ I wanted something to share with my grandchildren. We all have fun. ”

“ All the parents pitch in to help and we made many new friends. ”

“ It was too windy to sail so we sent all the children off to play hide and seek. 45 minutes of peace and quiet! ”
